Art Exhibition featuring Mixed-Media Drawings by Scott McCullar

SPRINGFIELD, III. – The artwork of Scott McCullar will be on display in the Charles E. Becker Library on the Benedictine University at Springfield campus at 1500 North Fifth Street from November 20, 2009-January 20, 2010.

An opening reception will be held from 4:00–7:30 p.m. on Friday, November 20, in the Becker Library Gallery where viewers will be able to meet and greet the artist. The exhibition will display recent mixed media drawings and digital prints.

McCullar is the Creative Designer for Marketing and Communications for Benedictine University at Springfield and has taught various drawing, printmaking and computer art courses since 1997 as an adjunct faculty member. The local writer and artist from Sherman has written and drawn for publishers that include DC Comics, West End Games, Shooting Star Comics and Campfire Comics. McCullar also serves as the creative designer for Quiddity International Literary Journal.

For more information about the exhibition at Benedictine University at Springfield, call Marianne Stremsterfer at (217) 525-1420, ext. 518 or e-mail mstremsterfer@sci.edu. The gallery is open Monday through Thursday 8:00 a.m.–9:00 p.m.; Friday 8:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m.; Saturday 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.; and Sunday 12:00–5:00 p.m. The campus will be closed during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.
